Notice of FAST RETAILING CO., LTD. (the “Company”)
regarding the Company’s Stance on Reducing Investment Units

The Company believes that one of the responsibilities of listed companies is to encourage the participation of individual investors in the share market and increase overall liquidity. Having studied the Company’s current share price, trading volume, number of shareholders and shareholder structure, the Company considers current conditions to be sufficient to ensure necessary liquidity, and so the Company considers its current investment units to be appropriate.

Therefore, the Company has no plans to reduce its current investment units for the time being.
