

Unlocking the Power of Clothing

We believe we can turn the power of clothing into a force for good. By designing, making and selling good clothing, we can make the world a better place. Good clothing means simple clothing, high in quality, and built to last. It's clothing that enriches the lives of people who wear it by giving them comfort, protection and pleasure. It is produced in a way that is harmonious with nature, without excessive burden on the environment. Good clothing is made by people of diverse backgrounds working with energy and enthusiasm, under conditions where their health, safety and human rights are respected and upheld. And we will extend this same spirit to our customers and all our stakeholders, working with them to aspire to a better society where we all thrive. This is our promise: to always work toward a better, more sustainable society.

Six Material Issues

We have identified six issues that are material to our sustainability efforts. We have announced a commitment and targets for each issue and are implementing them as part of our business strategy.

1. Create New Value through Products and Services
2. Respect Human Rights in Our Supply Chain
3. Respect the Environment
4. Strengthen Communities
5. Support Employee Fulfillment
6. Corporate Governance

Introduction

Fast Retailing manages eight apparel brands worldwide. Our mission is to deliver clothing that enriches the lives of all our customers around the world. For over 20 years, we have worked on sustainability activities with an aim to change the world for the better through our business.

As the world continues working to overcome difficulties caused by COVID-19, we believe the predicament also presents opportunity. We are committed to helping the world bounce back and build a better future, leveraging the great power of creativity to transcend borders and industries.

In Sustainability Report 2022, we present some of our current key initiatives, as well as details of our future action plans and commitments.
